

Transition Sentences

Nova Scotia Duck Tolling Retriever

After each fact, write in a transition sentence that would help make the paragraph feel more like a fluid paragraph, and less like simply a list of facts.

The Duck Toller is the smallest of all the retrievers. _____

The Nova Scotia Duck Tolling Retriever is intelligent, affectionate, and eager to please. _____

They have enormous amounts of energy. _____

They were named after their ability to lure ducks out of hiding. _____

The toller is a mixture of retrievers, spaniels, setters, and possibly a farm collie. _____

They have a warm, water-repellant coat that is great for swimming and cold weather. _____

Tollers can be any shade of red ranging from a light golden red through dark coppery red. _____

People often mistake the Toller for being a Golden Retriever. _____

Duck Tollers are working animals and are happiest when they have a job to do. _____

They are a great family dog, if you have the time to properly exercise them. _____