

Stealing Home: Reflections VI

Name: _____

How would you describe Sandy's relationship with his father? Does it change over time, or stay the same? Discuss your ideas using lots of examples and details.

How does baseball help Sandy cope with the difficulties in the camp? Discuss your ideas using lots of examples and details.

Why do you think the author chose to tell this story from the point of view of a young boy rather than an adult? Discuss your ideas using lots of examples and details.

In your opinion, which scene was the most important in the story? Why is that? Discuss your ideas using lots of examples and details.

Stealing Home: Reflections V2

Name: _____

How does the graphic novel format (images + text) deepen your understanding of separation and loss compared to a text-only story?

Why might the author leave some things unsaid (e.g. some fears, some reactions)? What effect does this have on the reader?

In your opinion, which scene was the most important in the story? Why is that? Discuss your ideas using lots of examples and details.

Is the title 'Stealing Home' an effective title? Why is that? Discuss your ideas using lots of examples and details.
